

Wodka Żoładkowa Gorzka

(Zho-want-KO-va GORZH-ka)

Bitter Digestive Vodka

Produced to the same recipe since 1950. This is a traditional Polish Vodka based on the practice of infusing alcohol with herbs.

The brand has been highly valued by consumers for many years and a market leader in Poland, its country of origin.

It has recently been introduced, with great success, to world markets where its intrinsic quality has won consumer praise and a many awards, including a Gold Medal at Monde Selection, Brussels 2009. The Monde Selection is considered to be one of the most significant events in the alcohol industry calendar and is arranged by one of the oldest independent organisations making awards for food and drink.

Wodka Żoładkowa Gorzka Classic is made from selected herbs, spices and dried fruits. Its unbeatable aroma and bitter-sweet taste has long confirmed it as Poland's favourite flavoured Vodka and of the company's flagship products. It is an ideal base for cocktails.

Wodka Żoładkowa Gorzka is available in other flavours including Honey and Mint.
